

So many blocks, so little time

Kindergarten Social & Emotional Learning Worksheets

Read the story and answer the questions.

Kenya loves to play with blocks during free time. Kenya is almost finished building a huge house when her teacher says that time is up, and she needs to put her blocks away. Kenya says, “No!” and begins kicking the floor. Kenya’s teacher has her take a break to calm down.

Questions

1. What was the problem in the story?
 - a. Kenya does not want to stop playing with blocks.
 - b. Kenya does not want to share her blocks.
 - c. Kenya does not want to play with blocks.

2. What could Kenya have done to solve her problem?
 - a. Throw the blocks away.
 - b. Explain the situation and ask her teacher for more time.
 - c. Cry until she got her way.

3. How do you think Kenya felt while she was cleaning up the blocks?

Answers

1. What was the problem in the story?
 - a. Kenya does not want to stop playing with blocks.
2. What could Kenya have done to solve her problem?
 - b. Explain the situation and ask her teacher for more time.
3. How do you think Kenya felt when she was cleaning up the blocks?

Answers will vary.