

Adding details to sentences

Grade 5 Sentences Worksheet

Add descriptive language to the sentences to make them more interesting. Some suggested words are shown.

Adding details to basic sentences can make writing more interesting.

1. The dog runs in the park. (fluffy, sprints, green)

The fluffy dog sprints in the green park.

2. The actress studies her role. (complicated, memorizes, beautiful)

3. Our teacher watches her students. (excited, math, observes)

4. The parents look at their baby. (stare, adorable, new)

5. The singer sings the song.

6. The dentist drives to his office.

7. The criminal calls his mom.

8. Our cat eats treats.

Answers

Answers will vary.

1. The dog runs in the park. (fluffy, sprints, green)
The fluffy dog sprints in the green park.
2. The actress studies her role. (complicated, memorizes, beautiful)
The beautiful actress memorizes her complicated role.
3. Our teacher watches her students. (excited, math, observes)
Our math teacher observes her excited students.
4. The parents look at their baby. (stare, adorable, new)
The new parents stare at their adorable baby.
5. The singer sings the song.
The handsome singer hums the catchy song.
6. The dentist drives to his office.
The intelligent dentist speeds to his high-rise office.
7. The criminal calls his mom.
The guilty criminal telephones his angry mom.
8. Our cat eats treats.
Our fuzzy cat devours smelly treats.