

Making connections

Kindergarten Reading Worksheet

Read or listen to the story.

Emily was having a hard day. It felt like everything was going wrong! First, she didn't want to wake up in the morning. She was tired and wanted more sleep!

It didn't get better when she arrived at school. She got in trouble for talking to her friend during a read-aloud. Then, at lunch, she spilled her juice everywhere! Later, at recess, she tripped while playing tag and skinned her knee.

"How was your day?" her mom asked after school.

"I think tomorrow will probably be better!" Emily said.

Then draw and write to finish the sentences.

This part of the story...

Reminded me of when...

