

What happens next?

Kindergarten Reading Worksheet

When you make a prediction, you use clues to guess what happens next.

1. Read or listen to the short story. Then make a prediction!
Circle what you think happens next and discuss why you chose it.

Gavin was making cookies with his mom. After his mom put them in the oven, Gavin was supposed to put a timer on, but he forgot!

By the time Gavin and his mom remembered to take the cookies out of the oven, they were burnt!

Gavin ate his cookies with milk.

Gavin's mom started making dinner.

2. Read or listen to the short story. Then make a prediction!
Circle what you think happens next and discuss why you chose it.

It started pouring rain while Meg's dog was outside. Her dog hates the rain! Meg called him to the door and asked him to sit while she looked for a towel. He sat still for a while, but then he got bored!

Meg's dog waited patiently for 15 more minutes.

Meg's dog went back outside.

Meg's dog stopped waiting and ran into the house.

3. Read or listen to the short story. Then make a prediction about what happens next, and tell the rest of the story.

Sara was learning to ride her bike without training wheels. She wobbled a little bit but kept going. She was doing great until she hit a bump!
