

Long vowels: Fill in the blank

Grade 2 Phonics Worksheet

Fill in the story's blanks with the long vowel words. Two words should not be used!

When an e is added to the end of a word, the vowel usually becomes long.

For instance:

cap → cape

home	hide	some	bake	Mike
slice	nice	Kate	cake	cookie

The Bake Sale

_____ is excited. Her class is having a _____ sale tomorrow! When she gets _____ from school, she bakes a _____ with her dad. When it is cool, she frosts it with chocolate icing.

Her brother, _____, smells the cake. He comes downstairs. "Can I have a _____?" he asks.

“Okay,” Kate says. “But only because I am _____!”

She cuts two pieces, so she can have one too.

“Yum,” her brother says when he is done. “Can I have another piece?”

“It’s for school!” Kate says. “But you can buy it tomorrow, if you want.” Then she _____s the rest of it, so it doesn’t get all eaten up!

The Bake Sale

Kate is excited. Her class is having a bake sale tomorrow! When she gets home from school, she bakes a cake with her dad. When it is cool, she frosts it with chocolate icing.

Her brother, Mike, smells the cake. He comes downstairs. "Can I have a slice?" he asks.

"Okay," Kate says. "But only because I am nice!"

She cuts two pieces, so she can have one too.

"Yum," her brother says when he is done. "Can I have another piece?"

"It's for school!" Kate says. "But you can buy it tomorrow, if you want." Then she hides the rest of it, so it doesn't get all eaten up!
