

Opinion writing: Product review

Grade 4 Writing Worksheet

Think of a product you recently used for your hair or skin. Write a review to let other kids know what you thought of it. In your review, be sure to include the name of the product, a brief description of what it is and how it works, and your thoughts on it. Would you recommend this product to others? Why or why not?

Remember, your review should be honest and specific. Use descriptive words and examples to help readers understand your experience.
